SCHOOL REPORT.

The superintending school committee of Allenstown respectfully submits the following report for the year ending March, 1885 :—

The whole amount of money raised by tax for the support of schools . . . . .	$1,475 00

Literary fund . . . . .	61 17
	$1,536 17

DISTRICT No. 1.

PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE, GEO. DOWST.

Summer term, Miss Nellie M. Mardin, teacher. Length of term, ten weeks ; whole number of scholars, six ; average attendance, three ; wages of teacher, including board, $24.00.

Winter term, Mr. Frank L. Seavey, teacher. Length of term, twelve weeks ; number of scholars, seven ; average attendance, six ; wages, $26.00.

These teachers worked faithfully, and with fair success, under the circumstances. Some complaints were made to us during the winter term ; and some of the children were taken from school rather than have them made to obey. But “No order, no school.”

Miss Nellie is always a success.

Mr. Seavey never taught before. On the last day, while we were present, we thought of the old minister who was listening to the preaching of a young man, and was heard to quietly pray, “Lord give him a little more positive power !” A little more “vim,” Frank, and it will greatly contribute to your success.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE, ANDREW J. CATE.

This school has had three terms of five, seven and eight weeks each. Misses Hattie M. Hook, Alice C. Langley and Nellie I. Cate teachers. Wages per month, including board, about $20.00.

These teachers have all done well, and have been as faithful as the hen we have heard of who, though she had but one chick, scratched all the time. Miss Cate promises to become one of our best native teachers.

There is only one scholar in this district. Frank I. Cate is a good boy, good scholar, and his name is always on the Roll of Honor.

Two other children from Deerfield have attended this school a part of the year.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE, CHARLES E. JOHNSON.

This school has had three terms, twenty-eight weeks in all, for the year. Miss Lizzie F. Johnson, teacher: whole number of scholars, twelve; average, nine: wages, $23.

Miss Lizzie has grown up from a child in this district and had brothers and sisters in the school, and we felt anxious about this her first effort at teaching. But she has succeeded most remarkably. Your committee was not able to be present at the examination on the last day, but from what we had before seen and from all we have heard, we judge that she was born to be a teacher. The school has never been more profitable than this year, so we judge.

On the Roll of Honor.

Lizzie A. Martin, Sara B. Martin, Burton I. Mardin. Charles M. Johnson and Myra I. Johnson. The last two named for the whole year.

DISTRICT No. 4.

PRUDENTIAL COMMITTEE, JOHN D. SWEATT.

We have had as usual three terms of twelve weeks each, in all the schools in this district.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Whole number of scholars for the year, attending two weeks or more, thirty-two; average, nineteen; wages, $34.67.

Mr. Harry I. Cole, taught the first term. I am not able to say much from personal knowledge of the school for this term. Not having received any notice from Mr. Sweatt, the prudential committee, I arranged with the teachers for the examinations on the last day, and had a notice in the "Suncook Journal" and proceeded as per said notice. But this school which was to have received visitors in the afternoon was ordered closed at noon.

The opinion expressed to us is that Mr. Sweatt was ashamed to have an examination. And he certainly betrayed a want of confidence in his teacher by demanding of him a certificate from me that he had properly kept, and duly returned his "Register," before paying him. A thing never before, or since, required of any teacher in this town.

Brother Harry may make an eminent lawyer, but from what we know and hear, we do not think he will ever make a first-rate teacher.

Miss Carrie M. Cochran taught the second and third terms. She began under unfavorable circumstances, but she immediately became master of the situation, and I unite with brother Sweatt, in saying that we have had the best school ever kept in our new house. Miss Cochran has taught more than sixty terms; and several terms in this district in years past. And as often as she has been tried, she never has been found wanting. If she is not otherwise engaged, I sincerely hope her services may be secured for the year to come. The following names are

On the Roll of Honor.

Linnie M. Sweatt, Edith A. Stearns, Alice B. Smith, Grace E. Smith, Annie L. Drought, Alplouse Lacasse.

INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL.

Mrs. Etta M. Stearns, teacher. Whole number, twenty-five; average, fifteen; wages, $28.00. Mrs. Stearns has increased her popularity as a teacher in this school during the past year. It seems to us that no stranger can take her place and do the children as much good.

PRIMARY SCHOOL.

Miss Etta Bartlett, teacher. Whole number, eighty-five; average, forty-five; wages, $28.00.

This school has more than doubled the number of scholars the past year. It has been very fortunate from the beginning in the adaptation of its teachers, but never more so than under the instruction of Miss Bartlett.

There is no work so important to the general welfare of the community as is required for the maintainance and prosperity of our common schools; and whoever from selfish designs, spite or spleen, would do ought to injure the school, or rob the poor children of its largest benefits, deserves the condemnation of all good people.

The great trouble in our humble town, and especially in No. 4, is that a few assume to have all the law, religion, educational talent and official ability there is in town. All the rest are branded with a profane oath as fools! These wise ones, if they cannot rule, seem determined to ruin! And these have not a child in the schools, and are sustaining drinking houses where the fathers of the poor children corrupt their morals, blast their reputation, embitter their lives and ruin their souls !

For the sake of our town, for the good of the children, for the benefit of all, we would devoutly pray, God save us from being subject to the dominion of such men !

Personally, our record in the matter of schools and school houses in this town is before the voters and the people. We do not claim infalibility : we know our weakness and often mourn because of it. But we do claim that no man has any right to make his judgment the standard of our conscience. Our own judgment must and will rule our own conduct.

In our relation to the schools, for the years that are past, our only thought, feeling and action has been for the greatest good to the largest number.

H. H. HARTWELL,
Supt. School Committee.
